A beautiful and well-educated young lady has just opened a large boot and shoe store in Philadelphia. She has three girl clerks, and they all wear little fancy aprons made of leather, so as to look business-like, at the same time pretty. There has long been a lady's shoe store in Baltimore owned and conducted by a lady and her female clerks.

A young lady in Bainbridge, Connecticut, has just sued Mr. Cooper of that village for $64,526. the value of eighteen thousand and odd lambs at four dollars per head, that being the estimated product of an ewe and its increase until she reached the age of twenty-one, which he promised her in exchange for a gold watch key.

UNSETTLED WAR CLAIMS.

T ITS LAST SESSION CONGRESS, AS A T ITS LAST SESSION CONGRESS, an amendment to the army appropriation bill, directed the President to appoint a commission to ascertain and adjust the claims of all loyal citizens in the South for Quartermaster and Commissary supplies furnished to the United States during the war. Under the head of quar-termaster are included hay, straw, wood, rent of houses and lots, grain, horses and mules, &c.— As commissary stores are included cattle and hogs, flour, corn meal, &c. As yet the rules which will be adopted by the commission concerning proof of loyalty and the furnishing of supplies are unknown. It is very necessary, however, that all claimants should have their claims presented at once, so as to have whatever benefit may result from priority of application,

The undersigned will receive and promptly at-tend to all claims of parties who deem themselves entitled to compensation under the above act of

CHARLES WHITTLESEY, UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER,

AND ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR IN BANKRUPTCY.

Congress having just amended the Bankrupt law so that nearly all parties can be discharged from their debts unobstructed by the fifty per cent. clause, so-called, another opportunity offers to secure the benefits of this most effective and permanent measure of relief. The above-named will make bankrupt business a specialty; will procure discharges on the most moderate terms, and transact all business in that line at prices which cannot fail to be satisfactory. Being Uni-ted States Commissioner he will endeavor to visit the different counties on court days, and thus save parties the trouble and expense of several trips to Alexandria in beginning and proceeding with their cases. Discharges can be obtained here before Register Hill as promptly as in Richmond or elsewhere, and at much less expense to parties. It may be added that the Bankrupt act, in connection with the Homestead exemption, which it is now believed will be secured to the bankrupt under the bankrupt law, is the only real relief now offered to parties struggling in the hopeless bondage of old debts. Address personally or by letter at No. 12 south Royal street, Alexandria, Va.
